

I. Definitions

(a) "COE" shall mean customer owned or provided equipment, and "router" shall mean NexG's VForce equipments.

(b) "Federal Universal Service Pass-Through Fee ("FUSPF")" shall mean a pass-through of the Federal Universal Service Fees ("FUSF") associated with the telecommunications services underlying the Service, based on current FUSF rates. The FUSPF may be modified from time to time to reflect changes in the FUSF.

(c) "NexG" shall mean Network Expert Group, Inc., as identified and set forth on the first page of this Agreement.

(d) "Service" shall mean the service(s) as identified and set forth on the first page of this Agreement.

(e) "Service Activation Date" or "Cutover Date" shall mean the date Customer has connectivity over the transport network to NexG's Internet Access Network and has been routing traffic from Customer's equipment to NexG's Internet access network. The Service Activation Date shall not be dependent on correct configuration of Customer's computer equipment, applications (e.g., Domain Name Service, Electronic Mail Service), Local Area Network ("LAN") or Wide Area Network ("WAN").

(f) "Site(s)" shall mean Customer locations where NexG is to perform Services.

II. Terms

The Term of this Agreement shall commence on the Service Activation Date and it shall continue for a Term ("Initial Term") specified on the Service Order Form ("Service Agreement"). This Agreement shall be automatically renewed on the same initial term ("Renewal") basis after the expiration of the Initial Term until terminated by either Party providing the other with thirty (30) days prior written notice before term expiration. Customer agrees and accepts the new price which may take in to an effect at the time of renewal.

III. Termination

(a) In the event a ruling, regulation or order issued by a judicial, legislative or regulatory body causes NexG to believe that its performance under this Agreement may be in conflict with such rule, regulation or order, Customer shall either agree to modify this Agreement to conform to the requirements of such rule, regulation or order, or NexG may terminate this Agreement immediately upon giving written notice to Customer and without any liability to Customer.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated immediately by either Party or NexG may suspend performance of this Agreement, upon written notice to the other Party if the other Party (i) is in material breach of this Agreement (including but not limited to failure to make timely undisputed payments) and such failure or breach is not remedied within fifteen (15) days after the terminating Party provides written notice to the breaching Party specifically describing such breach; (ii) ceases to carry on business as a going concern, becomes the object of voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy or liquidation, or a receiver is appointed with respect to a substantial part of its assets; (iii) engages in fraud, criminal conduct, or willful misconduct; or (iv) breaches the confidentiality obligations under this Agreement. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, in the event of a breach of this Agreement by either party, the other party will be entitled to pursue any and all remedies available to it at law or in equity, including court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(c) Termination for Convenience:

(i) Prior to the date upon which NexG installs transport to provide Service, (i) Customer may cancel this Agreement by providing thirty (30) days prior written notice to NexG and (ii) NexG may cancel this Agreement based on Customer's non-responsiveness or non-readiness to have NexG provision/fulfill the requested Service within ninety (90) days after Customer orders the Service. In either event, Customer shall pay NexG as liquidated damages, not as a penalty, a cancellation charge equal to six (6) months of the Service charges.

(ii) After the date upon which NexG installs transport to provide Service, in the event Customer terminates this Addendum without cause by providing thirty (30) days prior written notice to NexG or in the event NexG terminates this Addendum based on Customer's non-responsiveness or non-readiness as set forth above, Customer will be liable to NexG as liquidated damages, not as a penalty, for any installation charges waived or unpaid, any other unpaid charges due and owing, plus one hundred percent (100%) of the Monthly Charges for the remaining Term of the Service from the date of termination.

(d) Cancellation Charges:

(i) Cancellation charges are applicable when a Customer cancels a Circuit prior to the start of Service Date. There will be no cancellation charge if a Circuit is cancelled within Three (3) days of Customer's Circuit order. If a Circuit is cancelled after the three day cancellation period set forth above but prior to the Start of Service Date, Customer shall pay six months recurring charges plus any applicable service ordering and installation charges including without limitation. If Customer places an order for a Circuit, cancels within the 3 day grace period provided above, and later places an order for the same locations, Customer may be charged a cancellation charge. It is agreed that NexG's damages in the event of Service cancellation shall be difficult or impossible to ascertain. This provision is intended, therefore, to establish liquidated damages in the event of cancellation and is not intended as a penalty.

IV. Payment and Delinquency

(a) Taxes and then current FUSPF associated with Customer's use of the Services will be added, if applicable, to monthly charges specified herein.

(b) For all charges, including installation charges and taxes, if applicable, NexG will bill Customer through Customer's monthly bill from the NexG affiliate providing Customer's local service. For circumstances where Customer is outside NexG affiliate local service territory or where deemed necessary, at NexG's sole discretion, Customer may receive an invoice directly from NexG for all charges. Monthly recurring charges will be billed in advance and usage charges will be billed in arrears. Partial months of Service will be prorated. Payments will be applied first to the oldest charges on the bill, without regard to any notation Customer may make on its check. Monthly charges shall commence on the date that NexG makes Internet connectivity available to Customer. If Customer delays Internet connectivity for more than ten (10) business days after the date that the transport is installed, NexG will begin billing Customer for the Service on the eleventh (11th) business day following the installation of the transport.

(c) Payment shall be due every 5th day of each month. Customer shall advise NexG of any billing discrepancies or disputes about an invoice within fifteen (15) days after receiving the invoice or the invoice shall be deemed correct. In addition to recovering attorneys' fees and costs of collection, NexG may assess a late payment fee equal to 5% of the outstanding balance. Payment provisions are subject to NexG's credit review and NexG may require a security deposit to ensure prompt payment.

(d) NexG may suspend or discontinue Services provided under this Agreement, without notice, if charges for these Services are not paid when due.

(e) Suspended service will only be restored when the customer pays in full the outstanding balance and NexG will charge the amount of $200 in terms of service reconnection fee.

(f) If customer check is returned for non-sufficient funds, NexG has an authority to withdraw the amount of the check plus any applicable fees from customer bank account through electronic debit or bank draft. The use of a check for payment is customer's acknowledgement and acceptance of this policy and its terms and conditions.

V. Domain name Registration

Customer is responsible for choosing a domain name and submitting an application to NexG. NexG makes no warranty or representation that the requested domain name will be available for registration. Customer will retain ownership of the registered domain name(s).

VI. Customer Owner Equipment

(a) Unless specified in this Agreement, Customer is solely responsible for provisioning, installing, configuration and maintenance of all COE hardware and software, including without limitation TCP/IP routers, primary domain name servers, electronic mail servers, net news servers and firewall or proxy servers. NexG shall not be responsible for delays in the provision of Service resulting from incompatibility of such COE, or resulting from improper provisioning, configuration or maintenance of such COE. NexG may provide configuration files for certain routers, at its sole discretion, and only as a convenience to the Customer. The connection of COE and wire will at all times comply with the terms, conditions, limitations and responsibilities normally applicable to the connection of customer premise equipment to the telephone network, including those now or hereafter established in the Federal Communication Commission's Part 68 Rules and Regulations.

(b) NexG may make changes in its Services, equipment, operations or procedures, including those related to the Service, where such action is not inconsistent with the proper operation of the Service provided under this Agreement. If any such change can be reasonably expected to render any of Customer's COE incompatible or otherwise materially affect its use or performance, Customer will be provided written notice at least three (3) months in advance of the change. If Customer determines that the cost of replacing or modifying its equipment or system in order to reestablish compatibility and maintain uninterrupted Service is unreasonable, Customer may terminate this Agreement without penalty or liquidated damages (e.g., cancellation or termination charges).

(c) Customer will provide the proper environment, electrical and telecommunication connections for the Services and router, if applicable, as specified by NexG and/or the router manufacturer. No combination of COE will: require change in or alteration of the equipment or Service of NexG; cause electrical hazards to NexG's personnel or damage to NEXG's equipment; cause the malfunction of NexG's billing equipment; or cause degradation of Service to persons other than the user of the subject terminal equipment or communications system. Upon notice from NexG that Customer's COE is causing such hazard, damage, malfunction or degradation of Service, Customer will promptly make such changes as will be necessary to remove such hazard, damage, malfunction or degradation of Service.

VII. NexG Responsibilities

(a) Router installation and maintenance. If specified on the first page of this Agreement, NexG will:

(i) Provide, install and maintain a fully configured, staged, and tested router, configured with the IP software suite and LAN interface (the "Router"). Title to the Router shall pass to Customer upon NexG's completion of the installation of the Router. NexG will terminate the Service in the Router's LAN interface, which will be the Service point of demarcation. Customer is responsible for interfacing its equipment/LAN with the Router. If Customer requests and agrees to pay time and material charges, the Service interface may be extended to another Customer requested location;

(ii) Provide project management of the Service and Router installation;

(iii) Retain the Router password and will be solely authorized to make changes to the Router configuration;

(iv) Maintain and repair the Router for the duration of the Service period in accordance with Section 12 hereof. If, however, Customer chooses to manage the Router password, then Customer will be responsible for the maintenance and repair of the Router. In that instance, NexG will no longer have the responsibility to maintain and repair the Router as stated herein.

(b) NexG will monitor the Service 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for Service troubles and failure and will provide Customer with Service information and documentation for trouble reporting.

(c) NexG will allocate the necessary number of IP addresses to Customer based on the mutually agreed upon design and provide specific LAN/WAN assignments for the Router. NexG reserves the right to decrease, increase, modify or otherwise restrict the number of IP addresses assigned to Customer, but will not do so without prior discussion with Customer.

VIII. Customer Responsibilities

Customer is responsible for the following:

(a) Providing the path for the extension of the Service interface beyond the network interface demarcation;

(b) Providing access to the network demarcation and Router during installation and for the Term of the Service;

(c) Providing an on-site project manager/contact at mutually agreed upon times and for the duration of the installation interval who will designate the Service interface requirements, assist in the installation and configuration of the Router, and accept the Service;

(d) Providing network security for its LAN and access to Customer's LAN. This may include numbering/ renumbering Customer's LAN IP devices using the new address to permit access to the Internet;

(e) IP addressing of any hosts connected to the Router and IP sub-netting behind the Router. NexG does not provide professional services regarding sub-netting beyond the LAN interface on the Router;

(f) Providing a firewall or other device to protect its internal network if Customer has not elected to obtain security services from NexG; and

(g) Providing NexG with access to all wiring closets, equipment rooms and/or demarcation locations during installation and maintenance procedures.

IX. Special Construction (1) Customer does not request Service using a type of facility or equipment, or via a route, other than that which NexG's router would ordinarily utilize in providing the requested Service. (2) If the network connection by DSL or Cable vendors is not available to meet an order for NexG's Service, Services ordered under this Agreement will be terminated by NexG.

X. Service Moves, Changes & Upgrades

The Site(s) to receive the Service which are specified on the first page of this Agreement may be moved or changed from one Site to another as long as the new Site can be served by a type of DSL, Cable service, and the Service and associated charges will continue uninterrupted. Non-recurring charges and new recurring charges that would apply for the new location will be negotiated at the time of the move. If Customer elects to upgrade the Service to a higher speed, Customer may do so without liability for the early termination charges specified in this Agreement if Customer signs a new agreement with a term at least equal to the Term of this Agreement. Customer will be responsible for installation charges and the new monthly rate.

XI. Transport Services

Unless purchased with the Service, Customer must obtain local transport services ("Transport") from a transport provider for use with the Service and the terms and conditions applicable to those services are not in any way affected by the terms of this Agreement.

XII. Maintenance and Testing

(a) The Parties will cooperate with each other in performing joint tests to the extent reasonably necessary to establish the Service or to detect, isolate and remedy Service related problems. Joint tests will be at no charge to the other Party, if such tests are conducted by remote testing systems. If an NexG on-site technician is necessary and the trouble is located on Customer's side of the interface, actual material and labor prices at NexG's standard rates will apply. NexG will negotiate and coordinate the maintenance of transmission services with Customer's chosen local transport provider.

(b) NexG will perform routine maintenance as is customary to reasonably maintain the Service, Transport, and Router, if applicable, as described herein. All such maintenance will be performed at no additional charge to Customer if the fault which gives rise to the maintenance request is determined by NexG to reside on the NexG side of the point of demarcation between NexG and Customer or in the Router. Actual material and labor prices at NexG's standard rates will apply to troubles isolated to COE, to Customer's misuse of the Router, or to any condition on Customer's side of the point of demarcation between NexG and Customer.

(c) Customer understands and agrees that temporary interruptions may occur as normal and reasonable events in the provision of the Service. All computer systems and networks need routine maintenance from time to time. NexG generally schedules and performs such maintenance, on an as needed basis, during the times indicated by NexG. Not all scheduled network/systems maintenance will affect Customer's Service. However, NexG will endeavor to provide Customer five (5) business days advance notice, or if not possible, reasonable advance notice if NexG believes that such routine scheduled maintenance will affect Customer's Service. In the event of a network/systems emergency requiring immediate attention, NexG reserves the right to perform emergency maintenance without notice or upon short notice, and shall use all reasonable efforts to minimize the effect of such work on Customer's Service.

(d) Customer acknowledges and agrees that NexG has no control over third party networks Customer may access in the use of the Service, and therefore, delays and disruption of other network transmissions are completely beyond the control of NexG. NexG will not be responsible for Customer's inability to access the Internet due to circumstances not in the direct control of NexG, such as individual Internet user's own equipment capabilities and/or limitations, Internet limitations and/or browser software limitations.

XIII. Service Level Agreement

(a) Network Service Levels: NexG agrees to meet the following network service levels:

(i) Network Availability: NexG's IP Backbone Network, from which it provides NexG Internet Access by VAAN(VPN Advanced Applied Network), It will be available 99.9% of the time.

(ii) Network Latency: Average round-trip transmissions will be 60 milliseconds or less between NexG Backbone and customer points within NexG's IP Network, measured by averaging samples taken during a calendar month between these endpoints.

(iii) Network Packet Loss: During any calendar month, packet loss will not exceed 1% based upon monthly averages, between endpoints within NexG's IP network.

(b) Customer Service Level: NexG agrees to meet the following Internet availability service level:

Internet Service Availability: NexG's Internet Access Service will be available to Customer 99.9% of the time in a calendar month. "Service Unavailability" exists when Customer's Internet connection is unable to transmit and receive IP Packets to/from NexG's NMS and NexG records such failure in the NexG remote control center. Service Unavailability is measured from the time NexG has actual knowledge of a service outage and a trouble ticket is opened, either in response to notification by the Customer or in response to alarms from internal network management systems, to the time Customer's Impaired Service is again able to transmit and receive IP Packets from NexG's NMS.

(c) Internet Service Credits: If NexG fails to meet the above Internet service availability, then for each cumulative hour of Service Unavailability, exceeding the initial twenty (20) minutes of unavailability per month, Customer shall be entitled to the maximum of one (1) day's credit pro-rated from Customer's recurring monthly charges for the Internet Access Port fees. Credit requests must be received by NexG by the last day of the month after the monthly aggregate infraction occurred. If the NexG Customer Center determines that the reported Service Unavailability was NexG's responsibility, customer credit shall be provided in accordance with this subsection. Failure to comply with this requirement will forfeit Customer's right to receive an Internet Service Credit.

(d) This Service Level Agreement ("SLA") will not apply to infractions caused by (i) factors outside of NexG's reasonable control, including force major events, (ii) scheduled network maintenance, (iii) actions or inactions of Customer or any third parties not under the sole control of NexG, (iv) problems caused by COE, (v) problems isolated to the Local Access Transport and packet switching facilities connecting the NexG's backbone to Customer's premise; or (vi) transmission errors across the portion of the Internet which is off-net to NexG.

(e) To provide a means of verifying performance of the service levels specified in this section of the Agreement, NexG will use network health monitoring software to validate the data for any calendar month.

(f) Customer acknowledges that the warranties contained herein measure NexG's IP Backbone from selected endpoints and may not represent Customer's actual IP network experience.

(a) NexG may: (i) reject or refuse to perform any Services that are not in compliance with its applicable specifications and standards, laws and regulations and/or public interest standards as determined by NexG; and (ii) from time to time and without notice, make changes in Services that in its sole judgment will best serve NexG's customers. NexG's partial rejection or refusal of any portion of Services will not release Customer from its obligations with respect to the remaining Services being performed.

(b) Customer agrees to comply with the NexG Acceptable Use Policy (AUP), all policies applicable to NexG and all policies applicable to any network that is accessed through NexG. Violation of any such rules, regulations and policies, or any attempt to break security or to access an account which does not belong to Customer, shall be considered a material breach of contract, and NexG may terminate this Agreement without liability or may suspend or terminate Service to Customer, or suspend or terminate any user ID, electronic mail address, universal resource locator or domain name used by Customer. Upon such termination by NexG, Customer shall be liable for any applicable charges, including early termination

If, under normal and proper use, the Services fail to perform substantially as specified above, and Customer notifies NexG during such Term, NexG will make commercially reasonable efforts to correct such Service degradations or failures without charge to Customer. NexG's liability for damages for interruptions of Service, or for mistakes, omissions, delays, errors and defects in the provision of Services, shall in no event exceed an amount equal to the pro rata charges to Customer for the period during which the Services are affected.

(b) EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, NEXG HEREBY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL WARRANTIES INCLUDING IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF FITNESS, MERCHANTABILITY AND PERFORMANCE. NEXG MAKES NO WARRANTY THAT THE SERVICE WILL MEET CUSTOMER'S REQUIREMENTS, OR THAT THE SERVICE WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED, TIMELY, SECURE, OR ERROR FREE; NOR DOES NEXG MAKE ANY WARRANTY AS TO THE ACCURACY OR RELIABILITY OF ANY INFORMATION OBTAINED

THROUGH THE SERVICE. NEXG MAKES NO WARRANTY REGARDING ANY TRANSACTIONS EXECUTED THROUGH THE SERVICE. CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT SUCH TRANSACTIONS ARE CONDUCTED ENTIRELY AT CUSTOMER'S OWN RISK.

An indemnified Party shall provide the indemnifying Party with notice for any claim of indemnity and the indemnifying Party shall have complete authority to assume the sole defense and settlement of such claim. The indemnified Party may participate in the settlement or defense at its own expense and shall reasonably cooperate to facilitate the defense and settlement of such claims.

NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, EXEMPLARY, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION DAMAGES RELATED TO LOST PROFITS, TOLL FRAUD, LOSS OF USE, AND LOSS OF DATA, OR FAILURE TO REALIZE SAVINGS OR BENEFITS) ARISING UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSS. THE TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF NEXG, ITS SUPPLIERS, LICENSORS, AFFILIATES, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, AND/OR EMPLOYEES UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE LIMITED TO PROVEN DIRECT DAMAGES NOT TO EXCEED AMOUNTS ACTUALLY PAID BY CUSTOMER TO NEXG FOR SERVICE DURING THE 12 MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE DATE OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES GIVING RISE TO THE FIRST CLAIM FOR DAMAGES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.
